

Loral Langemeier is living proof that it makes no difference where you start in life; anyone can have the life of his or her dreams. Loral is a money expert, sought after speaker, best selling author and President of Live Out Loud, Inc. – a wealth coaching company.

Growing up on her family's farm in Nebraska, Loral learned the value of hard work, persistence and how to get things done even in the face of much opposition and criticism.

Loral began her career working for the Chevron Corporation. It was clear to her early on that there was more to life than cubicles and trading her time for dollars. Despite her own fears and persuasion from friends and family against it, Loral quit her job at Chevron to become an Executive Coach.

Virtually overnight Loral quintupled her income as an Executive Coach while working much less. With her newfound freedom of time and accumulation of wealth she founded Live Out Loud, Inc., as a single mother. Loral has since dedicated her life to helping men and women from all walks of life to experience what she's been able to achieve – to become millionaires and have time to spend with their families.

Loral's passion to help families enjoy wealth and prosperity is what has motivated her to write 5 best-selling books (Yes! Energy: The Equation to Do Less, Make More; The Millionaire Maker; The Millionaire Maker's Guide to Wealth Cycle Investing; The Millionaire Maker's Guide to Creating a Cash Machine for Life and Put More Cash In Your Pocket). As an author Loral sits with an elite few. Very few American authors have reached number one status on the Nielsen Book Scan in Australia, let alone in the US.

Today, under Loral's direction, Live Out Loud, Inc., is a multinational organization. Not only is Loral a business developer, she is also a key thought leader in the entrepreneurial space. As a single mother of two children, she is redefining the possibility for women to "have it all" and raise their children in an entrepreneurial and financially literate environment – to say nothing of the husbands she coaches who have spouses to share in the responsibilities.

Loral is often booked out for months in advance on guest spots on CNN, CNBC, The Street TV, Fox News Channel, Fox Business Channel-America's Nightly Scoreboard, The Dr. Phil Show and The View. She is a regular guest-host on The Circle in Australia and has been featured in articles in USA Today, The Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, Forbes Magazine and was the breakout star in the film The Secret.

Legacy is something very important to Loral. She is a frequent donor to charitable groups including, the Boys and Girls Club of America, The Lake Tahoe Bear League, An Empowered Woman Foundation, Life School and Family Resource Centers. She has developed special programs for women and children and, in 2012, raised $40,000 for the founder of the Make-A-Wish Foundation. She also runs Serve Out Loud, a program aimed at providing discount education in financial literacy to United States Veterans. For more information on Loral, please visit: www.liveoutloud.com.
